Our obsession is to deliver you the highest standard of products and services so you are confident that when it really matters we have you covered.

If you have any questions or queries regarding your Smart Home policy wording, please contact your trusted insurance broker.

This policy is not complete without a schedule. This policy, your schedule and any endorsement clauses listed on it, set out the agreement between you and us. They should be read as one document. Cover for each section will only be in operation where indicated on your policy schedule.

Various provisions in this policy and endorsement clauses in the policy schedule restrict or exclude cover. Read the entire policy carefully to determine your rights and duties, and what is and is not covered. You may not be entitled to claim under this policy if you have not complied with its terms.

Making a claim

We are committed to providing our Aviva Private Clients customers an outstanding claims service.

When a loss occurs, we aim to respond immediately with practical advice and assistance

In order for us to deal with your claim please ensure that you fulfil the obligations set out below. Not doing so may affect a claim.

Your details

You will need to provide your name and policy number along with any other information we may ask.

Notify us as soon as possible

We must be notified as soon as it is reasonably practical after an event which may give rise to a claim. If a crime has been committed, you must also tell the police and keep note of the crime reference number.

Late notifications

If we are unable to investigate the claim fully due to late notification we may be unable to either accept the claim or pay the claim in full if the amount claimed has increased as a result of the delay.

Do not admit responsibility

Please ensure that you do not admit responsibility or make an offer of payment to a 3rd party without talking to us first.

Correspondence

If you have any correspondence regarding a claim please send it to us as soon as you can.

Settling claims

To help us settle your claim we will require you to prove that the loss has happened. Please give us all the co-operation we need to investigate your claim, including evidence of the value of the items involved in a claim as well as any other relevant information and documents we may reasonably require. We will use our preferred suppliers or contractors to validate any costs involved. If we make a cash settlement of any claim, the most we will pay is the cost that we deem we would be able to replace or repair the loss covered by this policy.

Causing injury or damage to property

If you are being held responsible for causing an injury or damage to a person or property, we may take over and deal with the defence or settlement of any claim in your name. You must forward any letter, claim, writ, summons or any other legal document that you receive as soon as reasonably possible.

Recovery proceedings

If you have the right to recover all or part of any payment made under this policy from a third party we may start recovery proceedings in your name. We ask that you give us all the assistance we need to do this. Any costs that we agree will be paid by us.

Policy level covers

If you have personal cyber, legal expenses, or home emergency cover please also refer to the claims conditions in those sections.

If any claim made under this policy is fraudulent in whole or part, we will not be liable to pay any part of the claim, and we may recover from you any sums paid by us in relation to the claim. Furthermore, we may treat this policy as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.

At Aviva we aim to be open, fair and transparent in all our dealings with you. In return we expect the following commitment to us.

You promise us

You will:

1. always ensure that any information provided to us is accurate, complete and up-to-date. Tell your broker as soon as possible if this information changes. If you are in any doubt, please talk to your broker. We will tell you if a change in information affects your insurance;
2. always maintain your home in a good state of repair and try to prevent accident or injury, as well as protecting your property against loss or damage. Not doing so can mean a claim is more likely, that an incident may not be covered under this policy and could result in your insurance being invalid;
3. let us know before you start any work to extend, repair, renovate, build, decorate or demolish any part of the buildings or other permanent structures if the estimated cost of this work is more than £75,000 in total. Please tell your broker at least 30 days before this work starts so that we can assess any potential increase in the risk of your home being damaged. We will tell you if the building works affect your insurance. For example we may be unable to continue insuring your home or we may ask you to pay more for your insurance;
4. tell your broker if your home is going to be unoccupied or unfurnished. Losses are more likely to occur in unoccupied or unfurnished properties so we may amend the terms of your insurance;
5. pay your premium as shown in your schedule;
6. keep the sums insured at a level which represents the full value of the property. For buildings and other permanent structures full value should represent the full rebuilding cost including removal of debris and professional fees. For contents the replacement cost as new, and for collections the current market value;
7. notify your broker immediately upon filing or service of legal documents initiating your bankruptcy, insolvency or any non-motoring convictions.

Please ensure that you fulfil all these obligations. Not doing so may affect a claim or could result in your insurance being invalid.

In return, we promise you

We will:

1. insure you in accordance with the terms and conditions of this policy in return for the premium you pay;
2. pay covered claims as quickly as possible;
3. write to your broker at least 21 days in advance of your renewal date with our offer to renew, or to give you time to make other arrangements if we are unable to renew your insurance. The renewal offer will include the premium and any changes in the terms and conditions for the next policy period.

If you do not wish to renew your insurance with us please let your broker know before the renewal date of your policy. We reserve the right to amend your renewal terms and premium if you tell us about a claim after we have worked out your renewal terms and premium, which occurred during the current policy period;

4. maintain cover in the event of your death, on behalf of your legal representative for the remainder of the policy period. We may need to make changes to your policy terms at this time should the occupancy of the property change;
5. automatically broaden the cover provided by your policy if we make enhancements to the cover that don't result in an additional premium charge.
6. write to you at the email address we hold on file or correspondence address shown on your schedule if we have paid a claim, and we recover any item, to give you the option to buy back the recovered item. The cost to buy back the recovered items will be either:
 - i. the amount we paid for the claim; or
 - ii. the market value of the item at the time we recover it,whichever is the lesser amount.

Canceling your policy

1. we will refund your premium in full if, for any reason, you feel that this insurance does not meet your requirements. To receive a full refund you need to cancel this insurance within 14 days of cover starting or the day on which you receive the policy schedule, whichever is the later and not have made a claim. If you cancel after the first 14 days and have not made a claim, we will return any premium paid less a proportion of your premium for the time on cover. We will refund all premiums owed, via your broker, within 30 days from the date we receive notice of cancellation from you;
2. we will only cancel your insurance for a valid reason such as failing to comply with Part II – General conditions and only after giving you at least 14 days' notice which will be sent by recorded post to the correspondence address shown in your schedule. We will return any premiums paid less a proportion of your premium for the time on cover, providing no claims have been made. If a claim has been made, or there has been an incident which may give rise to a claim, no refund will be given.
3. If we are unable to collect your premium on the date it is due, we will write to you at the email address we hold on file or correspondence address shown on your schedule, to give you another opportunity to make the payment.

If you do not pay the premium by the date stated in our reminder letter, we will assume you no longer wish to continue with your policy. If this is the case, we will write to you to confirm that your policy was cancelled from the date the missed payment was due.

The information provided to us

You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask when you take out, make changes to and renew your policy.

We rely on the information you provide to us when we decide whether to offer this insurance to you, the terms upon which to offer it, and what the premium will be. This is why it is important that you are careful when answering any questions we ask, and you make sure your information is accurate and complete.

Please tell your broker as soon as possible to let us know if there are any changes to the information set out in the statement of fact or on your schedule, or if you become aware that any information previously provided to us is inaccurate.

If we find out that you have deliberately or recklessly provided us with false or misleading information, we will treat this insurance as void, refuse all claims and keep any premium you have paid.

Additionally, if we find out that you carelessly provided us with false or misleading information, it could affect your policy and any claim you may bring under the policy. This could include the following:

- a. If we would not have offered you insurance at all if we had been provided with accurate and complete information, we may cancel your policy, refuse to pay a claim and return the premium paid;
- b. We may not pay a claim in full, but instead reduce the amount of any payment in line with the proportionate reduction in premium you have paid;
- c. We may revise the premium and/or change any excess; and
- d. The extent and terms of the cover may be affected.

If we do any of the above, we will write to you explaining why this is happening. If you disagree with what we are doing, please tell us. If you are still not satisfied, you may ask the Financial Ombudsman Service to review your case without affecting your legal rights. Please refer to Part X – How to make a complaint for details of how to do this.

Other things to be aware of

Unless the schedule provides to the contrary, this contract will be governed by English Law, and you and we agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales, unless you reside in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, in which case the law applicable to that jurisdiction will apply and its courts will have exclusive jurisdiction.

All our communications with you will be in English.

When a claim is made, we will only ever pay up to the relevant sum insured.

If there is more than one person named in the schedule (known as a joint insured), the total amount we will pay following a claim will not exceed the sum insured we would be liable to pay to any one of you.

You and we are the only parties to this policy. Nothing in this policy is intended to give any person any right to enforce any term of this policy which that person would not have had but for the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

Part III – General exclusions

These exclusions apply to each and every section of this policy, unless otherwise stated. They apply in addition to any specific exclusions listed under a particular section.

A. Basis of cover

We will pay damages an insured person is legally obligated to pay for personal injury or property damage caused by an occurrence covered by this policy anywhere in the world, unless stated otherwise or an exclusion applies.

B. Payment of a loss

The most we will pay for all claims for personal injury and property damage as a result of any one occurrence is the liability sum insured shown in your schedule. This insurance applies separately to each insured person against whom a claim is made or lawsuit is brought, but we will not pay more than the limit shown in your schedule for any single occurrence regardless of the number of insured persons, claims made or persons injured.

Payments under Section C. Defence Cover, except any settlement payment, are in addition to the liability sum insured shown in your schedule.

C. Defence cover

We will pay the legal defence costs and legal expenses incurred by an insured person with our prior written consent. In jurisdictions where we may be prevented from defending an insured person for a covered loss because of local laws or other reasons, we will pay only those legal defence expenses incurred with our prior written consent for the insured person's defence.

Our duty to pay the defence costs and legal expenses of any claim or suit arising out of a single occurrence ends when the amount we have paid in damages for that occurrence equals the liability cover limit shown on the schedule of this policy.

If the policy is terminated pursuant to a sale of the home you will be insured for a period of seven years after the date of termination but the insurance will cover only liability incurred in connection with the home and will not apply if the liability is covered under a more recently effected or current policy. We do not cover any liability for the cost of putting right any fault or alleged fault.

C. Payment of a loss

The most we will pay for all claims we accept under this policy in total for the policy period is the sum insured, regardless of the number of claims.

If there is more than one person named in the schedule, the total amount we will pay following a claim will not exceed the amount we would be liable to pay to any one of you.

Defence costs

Any defence costs we pay will be included within, not in addition to, the sum insured.

Paying out the sum insured

For any and all claims arising for the policy period we may pay the full sum insured that applies.

When we have paid the full sum insured, we will not pay any further amounts for any claims or for associated defence costs.

D. Conditions

The following conditions apply only to Part VI – Cyber Cover. If you do not keep to these conditions and this reduces our legal or financial rights under the policy, we may refuse to pay part or all of your claim.

1. Reporting a claim

As soon as you know about any incident or circumstance that may result in a claim against you or a claim under your policy you must:

- take all reasonable steps and precautions to prevent further damage or other loss covered by your policy;
- immediately tell the police about any loss or damage relating to crime and get a crime reference number;
- tell the person who arranged your policy (or us), providing full details, as soon after the incident or circumstances as possible;
- tell the person who arranged your policy (or us), providing full details, within 14 days in the case of you knowing about an incident or circumstance that has resulted in or may result in you receiving a claim against you.

In addition you must also:

- Immediately send us every letter, writ, summons or other document you receive in connection with the claim or circumstance, and record all information relating to a claim against you covered under Section 3 – ‘Cyber online liability’;

- keep any damaged home systems and other evidence, and allow us to inspect it;
- co-operate with us fully and provide all the information we need to investigate your claim or circumstance;
- give us details of any other insurances you may have which may cover loss covered by this policy;
- attempt to recover financial loss relating to your claim under Section 2–Cyber crime from a bank or other financial institution that may be responsible for refunding all or part of the loss; and
- tell us if you recover money from a third party in relation to a claim (you may need to give the money to us).

You must not admit responsibility or liability, or agree to pay any money or provide any services on our behalf, without our written permission.

2. Fraudulent claims

If you (or anyone acting for you) make a claim knowing that any part of the claim is fraudulent (dishonest, false or exaggerated), we will not pay the claim and we may cancel your policy from the time of the fraudulent act relating to your claim and we may keep any premium you have paid (see ‘Part II – General conditions which apply to this insurance policy’).

3. Enforcing your rights

We may, at our expense, take all necessary steps to enforce your rights against any third party. We can do this before or after we pay a claim. You must not do anything before or after we pay your claim to affect our rights and you must give us any help and information we ask for.

You must take reasonable steps to make sure that you protect your rights to recover amounts from third parties.

4. Protecting data

You must make sure that you take precautions for disposing of and destroying home systems in order to protect data.

5. Controlling defence

We can, but do not have to, take control of investigating, settling or defending any claim made against you. We would take this action in your name. If necessary, we will appoint an adjuster, solicitor or any other appropriate person to deal with the claim. We may appoint your solicitor, but only on a fee basis similar to that of our own solicitor, and only for work done with our permission in writing. We will only defend claims if we think that there is a reasonable chance of being successful, and after taking the costs of the defence into account.

6. Other insurances

If there is any other insurance covering your claim, we will only pay our share, even if the other insurer refuses to pay the claim.

Reasonable care

You must:

- make sure that your home systems are used and maintained as recommended by the manufacturer or supplier; and
- take all reasonable steps and precautions to prevent or reduce damage or other loss covered by your policy.

7. Change in risk

As soon as you (or anyone acting for you) become aware of any change in circumstance which may affect the policy, you must tell us of the change. We will decide if the change alters the risk and if we need to change the terms and conditions of your policy including the premium. This applies to any change which arises, whether it is before or during the policy period, including before we renew your policy.

If you do not tell us about a change, a claim may be reduced or rejected and in some cases your policy might be treated as if it never existed and you may not be entitled to a refund of premium.

Your cover will not be affected by any change in circumstance which increases the risk covered by your policy and which you could not have known about.

8. Defence software

Your home systems must be protected by anti-virus software, where available, which is updated regularly in accordance with the provider's recommendations.

9. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

Any person who is not named in the schedule has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third-Parties) Act 1999 (or any other law) to enforce any term of the policy.

10. Correct information

You must give us correct information. If you fail to do so and:

- your failure was deliberate or reckless, we will treat your policy as if it never existed, refuse all claims and keep any premium you have paid. If your failure occurs during a change to your policy we will terminate your policy from the date of that change, refuse subsequent claims and keep any premium you have paid.
- your failure was careless and we would not have issued your policy had you told us the correct information, we will treat your policy as if it never existed and return any premium you have paid. If your failure occurs during a change to your policy we will treat your policy as though the change was not made and where appropriate return any additional premium charged for the change. You may want to cancel your policy if it does not meet your needs (see 'Part II – General conditions which apply to this insurance policy').

- your failure was careless and we would have insured you on different terms had you given us correct information, we will;
 - i. alter the terms of your policy to those we would have imposed (other than those relating to premium); and
 - ii. reduce the amount paid or payable on any claim in proportion to the amount of additional premium we would have charged.

E. Exclusions

The following conditions apply only to Part VI – Cyber cover. We will not pay for any cost, damages, liability, loss or defence costs arising from the following:

(Our panel solicitor firms are chosen with care and we agree special terms with them which may be less than the rates available from other firms.)

If that opinion conflicts with advice obtained by us, then the insurer will pay for a final opinion which shall be binding on the insured and us. This does not affect the insured's right under the next condition below.

If we are unable to satisfy the insured's concerns and the matter can be dealt with by the Financial Ombudsman Service the insured can ask them to arbitrate over the complaint.
